

MY LANGUAGE SUCCESS STRATEGY

by Bilingual Avenue

Even though raising bilingual children might feel hard at times, it's actually simpler than you think. It's about taking consistent action so that your children can be exposed to your target language and feel the need to use it!

Find a few things that are working with your children and do them over and over with them!

Rinse and repeat!

Rinse and repeat with whatever is giving you the greatest results on the language journey.

I want to encourage you to take some time to create your own success on the language journey by identifying what steps you consistently need to take in order to help your children move forward on their language progression.

Print it off and stick it somewhere you'll see it frequently! It will serve as a reminder that all you need to do is stay focused on a few key activities.

STEP ONE YOUR VISION

Write down what your vision is and why you're doing what you're doing. You need to have this front and center throughout your language journey so that you stay focused on what your mission really is.

---

Use your vision to bring you back on track whenever you feel like things are hard or impossible.
Let your vision keep you strong mentally.

STEP TWO YOUR CHILDREN & THEIR INTERESTS

Write down what types of activities your children enjoy the most and their interests!

Whenever you feel disconnected to your language goals or like your children are not making the progress you want, check back here!

Remember that your children are much more likely to enjoy their language learning experience if they are having fun! These activities are going to yield much greater results for you.

---

Remember to keep it simple.

STEP THREE ADDING VALUE & YOUR ROLE

Write down the main ways you are going to add value and help your children.

It's one thing to provide your child with tools and resources but another to get them to truly internalize the language.

Often times you will achieve much greater results if you are participating and engaging with your child! The key here is to find a way to make it manageable and something you can sustain going forward.

What are you going to focus on doing? (Again keep it simple!)

Now you should have a success map!

You're clear on your vision.

You checked in on your children's preferences and interests.

You know what you're going to do in order to add value and build a positive language relationship with them.

If you consistently take action on the things you have written down, you will make progress and move forward.

Even though it might not be easy, in fact it might be rather confusing at times, reflecting on your way forward can yield great results on the language journey.

Remember that and keep moving forward!
